

"A Dragon's Tail" Contest

Calling all Kid Writers and Artists! Do you like to let your imagination soar? The Ruth Camp Campbell Memorial Library is having a contest for the best "A Dragon's Tail" entry.

Rules and Procedures:

- For ages 11 and under.
- Entrants pick up an entry booklet from the circulation desk (see example on display board).
- Write your name, age, and phone number ON THE BACK of the booklet.
- Using only the paper provided, write a story or draw pictures relating to the theme "A Dragon's Tail."
- You may use any type of medium (crayons, pencil, pen, etc.) but it must be contained in the booklet. Entries with objects protruding out of the booklet will be disqualified.
- Return the packet by 5:00 February 17, 2012.

Judging:

- Please put your name, age, and phone number on the back of the booklet. We will be having a blind judging and do not want to influence the judges.
- Judging criteria is as follows:
 - Creativity
 - Originality
 - Neatness

One winner will be selected to receive our Dragon Prize! Three Honorable Mentions will also be selected. Winners will be announced in March.
